Raji – I’ve been informed that Bayer may not have their comments back to me today. I had intended to send you everything today and I have made all edits that I can at this point. I am told I will get their comments “in a day or two”. Although I don’t suspect they will be major comments, it will set us back a day or two. I will be in touch when I am able to send you the documents.

Regards,

Matt

Matt

Thanks for the update. Let me know when you are having the call with Lam and I can be in the background listening in just so that EPA is in the loop.

If you want to I can set the call up also and we can use my conference line. Let me know what works best.

Hi Raji – I have sent the response-to-comment table and redline-strikeouts to our reviewers and have asked for comments back by this Friday. I intend to send these to you on next Monday the 23rd, assuming everyone stays on schedule.

I have a couple of questions for Lam Tran about his comments and I am going to reach out to him directly if that’s OK with you.

Regards,

Matt
